

Contents

Foreword	vii
I. Introduction
Seasteads: Creating New Small Societies From Scratch Victor Tiberius	3
II. Political Economy and Governance
The Politics of Seasteading Rahim Taghizadegan	67
Seasteads and E-Democracy: The Potential of Mobile Technology Sean Mossey & Aroon P. Manoharan	81
Minarchism on Seasteads Roderick T. Long	91
Epistocracy on Seasteads? Cathrine Holst	105
A Localist View: Maintaining Seastead Sovereignty in a Globally Connected World Mark Moore	115
Free-Money matters: Some Considerations for a Seastead's Monetary Order Hugo Godschalk	125
III. Legal Aspects
The International Legal Framework applicable to Seasteads on the High Seas E.B. Boschen	145
Law, Governance, and International Relations of Seasteads Tom W. Bell	159
Seasteads and Private Courts: Pro and Con Walter E. Block	171
Rethinking Marriage from the Seastead up Colin P. A. Jones	179
Seasteads: Research Ethics and Oversight Issues David B. Resnik	197

IV. Exemplary Aspects of Daily Life on Seasteads
Aeroponic Technology – A Tool for Food Production on Seasteads Sing Kong Lee	207
Telemedicine as a Healthcare Delivery Solution on Seasteads Rashid L. Bashshur and Matthew R. Dunn	213
Creating a Learning Community on Seasteads Lucinda Becker	221
 The Authors	 231